

Yelena Konetchy

Born in Russia, Yelena (Lena) Konetchy recently moved to Austin, TX from Roscommon, MI to further her career in choreography and teaching dance. Yelena has had 13 years of experience in classical ballet, and has been teaching children's ballet and creative movement since 2006. Yelena's professional performance background ranges from early modern and contemporary works to ballet, including seasons with the Illinois Ballet and Charleston Ballet Theatre. Yelena is also certified in Vaganova ballet pedagogy and in Beginner Lester Horton modern dance technique. In Austin, Yelena holds position as Company Manager and Artist of The Dance Theatre, performing original Duncan repertory and new works. She also teaches Ballet, Horton and Duncan Modern at Tapestry Dance Studios and Dance Discovery, and Creative Ballet at Creative Dance Adventures.